Spectacular 4-bedroom villa with a heated infinity pool and beautiful views, for sale in Malaga.

This luxury villa has been finished to a very high standard. Folding glass doors run across the length of the house and terrace which is adorned with tasteful furniture and ornaments. The house is light and spacious, with a nice open plan layout from the kitchen through to the dining room and front room which boasts charming sloped ceiling and wooden beams.

Air-conditioning is inbuilt and flows throughout the house keeping it wonderfully cool during the summer months. There is also a fireplace that keeps the house warm in the winter.

On the ground floor you have a luxurious master bedroom with a large en-suite bathroom and walk-in wardrobe, double doors also open up on to the front terrace from here.

Upstairs there are 2 large double bedrooms, a study and family bathroom. It is almost in itself a self-contained apartment with a large balcony that stretches across the front accommodating the two bedrooms that both have double doors opening up to reveal the amazing panoramic mountain and sea views.

The key selling point of this fantastic property is the heated infinity pool that overlooks the sea. The private gardens have automatic irrigation and there is a large orchard of olive trees. The property also benefits from its own well and two water deposits of 12,000 litters each. The large garage has enough room for 4 cars and there is a large basement that could be converted into a gym or further accommodation.
