Newly renovated apartment in excellent condition with very high quality finishes in the Eixample of Valencia.

The property has recenty been renovated with great taste, maintaining the high ceilings in the main rooms.

The apartment enjoys a lot of light thanks to its easterly aspect. It also takes advantage of a large balcony that provides freshness and light to the master bedroom and the living room.

Upon entering the apartment, we enter a hallway with large built-in wardrobes that leads to the two single bedrooms. In the background, we find a completely renovated bathroom to our left, and we already enter the open space of the kitchen and living room.

The open kitchen is fully equipped with quality appliances and materials and, together with the living room, receives the morning light thanks to the large east-facing window. From the living room, we go to the master bedroom, which has built-in wardrobes with access to the balcony leading to the outside and with an en-suite bathroom.

All the materials are of high quality, the floors are wooden and the property receives abundant natural light throughout the day. This home, in an exclusive location in the centre of Valencia, is ideal for the most discerning clients.
