OVERVIEW

Beautifully renovated apartment with wooden ceiling beams and high quality finishes.

On the fourth floor of a building in El Born, with views of Calle Banys Vells, we find this attractive property for sale.

It boasts a minimalist design with some of the original architectural features, such as wooden ceiling beams and exposed brick walls, which add charm, warmth and character to an otherwise very modern property.

There are 2 bathrooms and 4 bedrooms in total, all of which are doubles, although one is currently being used as a study. The living room and kitchen are open plan and bright. The apartment is fully renovated and furnished with high quality furniture, so it is in move in condition.

Air conditioning and heating via radiators make this a comfortable home all year round. What's more, there is a communal terrace with views over the beautiful Santa Maria del Mar Church. The building does not have a lift.

An ideal property for a family looking for a home in a privileged Born location.
