Impeccably renovated apartment for sale in the Sant Antoni - Poble Sec area of Barcelona

Recently renovated apartment with very high ceilings and period features in one of Barcelona's up-and-coming areas.

This apartment has just been refurbished, making the most of the space it offers. All 3 double bedrooms and the living room have balconies overlooking a pretty square.

The central area of the apartment is occupied by a large kitchen - dining room with the other rooms leading off from there. The apartment has 3 complete bathrooms, 2 of which are en suites.

The renovation has been lovingly carried out to preserve many of the original period features such as the mouldings on the ceilings, the mosaic floor tiles, the carpentry and the typical Catalan vaulted ceilings.

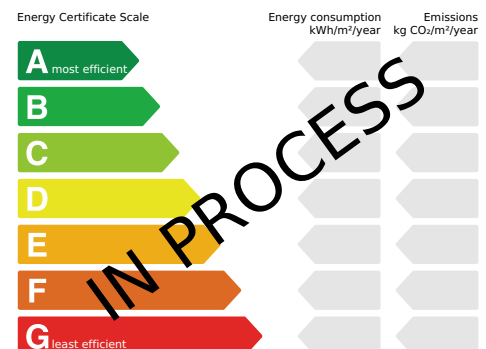

The building where the property is situated is located between the districts of Sant Antoni and Poble Sec. Both are neighbourhoods with great history and charm in the city of Barcelona. The building has 3 façades with access from a pretty square right on Avenida Parallel, next to the legendary Teatro del Molino.

The building dates back to 1900 and has recently passed the technical inspection and will benefit from several improvements in the coming months.
