A beautifully renovated townhouse for sale in the picturesque and historic village of Pals in the Costa Brava, just a few kilometres from the nearest beaches

Superbly restored 19th Century stone townhouse in the centre of Pals | 3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms | High quality finishes throughout | Roof terrace with beautiful views | Interior patio | Only 10 minutes from the nearest beaches

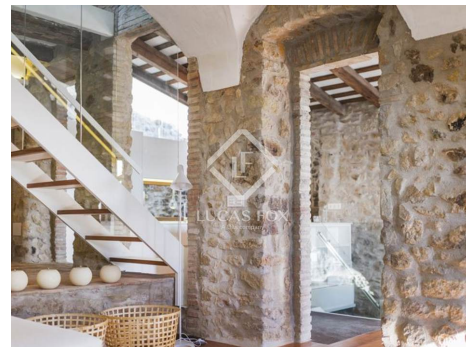

This exquisitely renovated 19th Century townhouse for sale is located in the historic quarter of the beautiful medieval town of Pals in the Baix Emporda, just 10 minutes from the town of Begur and some of the Costa Brava's most beautiful bays and beaches.

This inland Costa Brava property for sale originally dates from the year 1889 and has been painstakingly restored by the current owners. The renovation project has taken great care to respect the property's historic integrity, combining original features with a contemporary look and feel.

The property is constructed over three levels and offers spacious and light living areas as well as three bedrooms and three bathrooms. In total the property boasts 211m² of constructed area and 40m² of terraces.

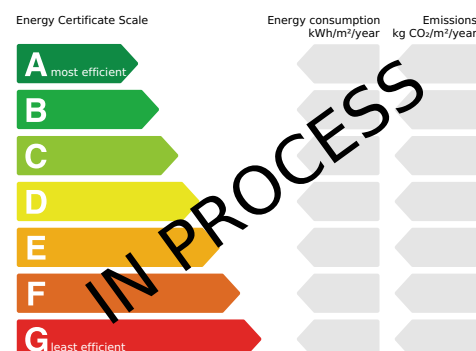

The renovation project was completed in 2015. The property can be purchased fully furnished, though the furniture is not included in the sale price.
