OVERVIEW

Apartment situated in a prestigious building built in 1917 with a beautiful façade, ideally located in a quiet residential street in Chamberí, just 5 minutes' walk from Calle Serrano in the Salamanca district

This unique renovation project has taken a sublime historical building in one of the best locations in Madrid and adapted it to offer the highest level of luxurious lifestyle.

The front façade has been preserved to its original glorious state and the rear façade has been created to look the same. Every attention to detail has been given in this project, including the use of noble materials in the communal areas, the beautiful interior gardens and the mechanical parking system.

This stunning, bright apartment measures 196m² and is located on the second floor on the front side of the building. There is a vast living room area featuring 2 balconies overlooking the beautiful neighbourhood. The kitchen is a good size and is well equipped. There are 3 spacious, ensuite bedrooms, each one with built-in wardrobes, and there is also a guest bathroom.

The property has been renovated using the highest quality materials, including hardwood flooring and high-end cabinets and sanitary units.

This apartment comes with a storage unit.

There are 2 parking spaces available for the apartment with a price of €65,000 each.

The property will be completed at the end of May 2014.
