OVERVIEW

A stunning modern four bedroom house in an exclusive private condominium in the centre of Cascais

A stunning modern four bedroom house in an exclusive private condominium within walking distance of the centre of Cascais

This stylish house is in a small condominium of twenty four houses which have all been built to an extremely high standard.

The ground floor features a huge open plan living/dining room which has large glass double doors flooding the space with natural light and leading onto the private terrace. There is a generously sized, fully fitted kitchen which also has access onto the terrace.

The upper floor has the bedrooms, with two ensembles, two double bedrooms and a family bathroom. All the bedrooms have their own private veranda. The condominium features a large swimming pool, underground parking and 24 hour security.

The town of Cascais has been enduringly popular with Portuguese, expatriates and holiday makers for many years. It has a traditional feel combined with international standards of cuisine, entertainment and sporting attractions. There are five golf courses within a short distance, Cascais marina, many restaurants and superb transport links to the capital Lisbon and the nearby international airport.
