OVERVIEW

Set in an enchanting garden, with a pool and chapel

Charming traditional quinta set in 7800m2 of land with planning permission within the grounds for an additional 400 sqm villa.

This beautiful property is located in Sao Pedro de Penaferrim, an historic area of Sintra famous for the Pena Nacional Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

The main house includes an impressive living room divided into three sections with a fireplace and French doors to the garden. The fully fitted kitchen has a pantry and a door to the basement.

The basement includes a living room with wood burning stove and access to a private patio, there is also a laundry area along with a staff bedroom and bathroom.

The master suite on the first floor has fitted wardrobes and a large en suite bathroom. There are also two further bedrooms with a family bathroom, and a useful storage area.

Outside in the enchanting landscaped gardens there is a heated swimming pool complete with showers, a lovely old greenhouse and small chapel.
