A beautiful farm for sale near Sintra and Lisbon

A beautiful historic farm for sale located in the countryside between Cascais and Sintra. In need of some modernisation

This fantastic farm is set within rolling countryside on the border of Cascais and Sintra. The property dates from the early 18th Century and has many original features.

There is a main house and a separate chapel and although in good condition it is in need of some modernisation. The property would be ideal for a small guesthouse or boutique hotel.

The main house is built over two levels with a total area of 375 m2. There is a large spacious living area, separate dining area and good sized kitchen. The bedrooms and bathroom are on the upper level.

Also on the property there is a chapel, wine cellar, numerous outbuilding and a well. The farm also has a swimming pool
