Amazing renovated property with 4 bedrooms, family room and service quarters in the trendy Justicia area

Beautifully renovated 4-bedroom property with family room and service quarters in protected classic building in Madrid's up-and-coming Justicia area.

This 315 m² property is situated in the neighbourhood of Justicia, one of the most up-and-coming in Madrid, in a classical and protected building, with a stunning restored façade and entrance lobby. The property owns spacious and airy rooms and feels light and bright. It has been fully renovated and decorated in a modern style, yet retains some period features, such as the beautiful French doors from the living room to the balcony. There is also 2 storage spaces located in the same building included in the price.

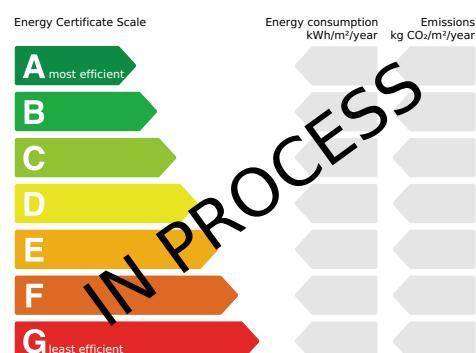

The apartment opens onto an entrance hall; to the left is the spacious living room with exterior views, further to the left is the space currently being used as an office. Following on from the living room is the dining room, which has separate access to the kitchen and service quarters. To the right of the entrance hall is the unique children's space, plus each of the 3 en-suite bedrooms along this hallway.

This apartment has beautiful views of a leafy and quiet street in Justicia. It feels peaceful and homely as the street below has restricted traffic.
