OVERVIEW

Unique apartment on the sixth floor of an elegant corner building with large windows, natural light, high quality finishes and a spacious living area.

The uniqueness and personality of this sixth floor apartment in a corner building is felt immediately on entering. First is the master suite with an elongated window facing west and a large patio. The hall leads to the bright and spacious living area.

This lounge area is characterised by beautiful views of the city. The kitchen with utility area is located in the centre of the property and is illuminated by an inner courtyard. The light in every room, the unique living area and good quality materials make this an excellent apartment in the city centre.
