Renovated apartment in a historic building in Barcelona's Gothic Quarter

Renovated 3-bedroom apartment with original architectural features, for sale in a historic building from 1856 in the Gothic Quarter.

This wonderful apartment stands out for its impressive location in the Gothic Quarter, in a building dating back to 1856 which has preserved its original architectural features and is where the former residence of the Marquis of Monistrol once stood.

The property has been renovated to an excellent standard and boasts original features such as wooden beams and exposed brick walls. These features have been preserved and combined with spacious rooms with high ceilings and abundant light to create a modern and comfortable city home.

The apartment offers, in the day area, a large living room with a sophisticated open kitchen: a unique room in which we find part of a 4th century tower and Roman wall and which also has access to balconies, providing abundant light.

There are 3 spacious double bedrooms, two with en-suite bathrooms.

The apartment has wooden floors and is equipped with air conditioning and heating to ensure maximum comfort.
