Spacious and bright apartment to renovate, for sale in El Putxet

4-bedroom apartment with excellent renovation potential, for sale near Lesseps, in a building with a lift. 2 parking spaces included in the price.

This apartment to renovate is located in a building with two lifts on Avinguda de la República Argentina, near Plaça de Lesseps, an area with a wide range of local shops and international schools, as well as being well connected to the rest of the city.

It is a very spacious and bright apartment given that it receives a lot of direct light and has two balconies. With the current distribution, it has clearly differentiated day and night areas; the night area consists of 3 double bedrooms and 1 single bedroom. There are also 2 bathrooms and an interior gallery used as a utility area. As the walls are all partition walls, there are many renovation options; the spaces could be easily redistributed in order to adapt the apartment to the needs and preferences of the new owner.

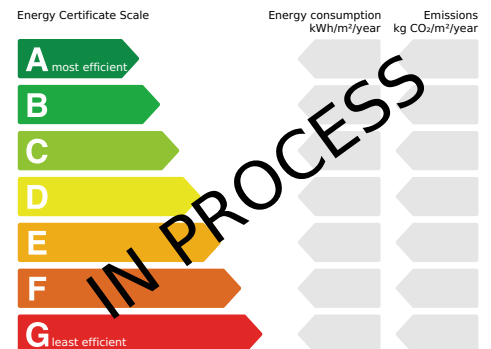

The property currently features wooden and brown terrazzo floors, as well as air conditioning and heating. In addition, the price includes two parking spaces in the same building.
