Apartment with stunning period features, for sale in Eixample Right

Magnificent renovated apartment with period features and a neo-Gothic façade, for sale in Barcelona.

This exclusive apartment, designed by the well-known modernist architect Lluís Domenech i Montaner, is part of Barcelona's cultural heritage and is ready to move into. The property has undergone a magnificent renovation, during which original architectural features have been preserved including the high ceilings, beautiful moldings, joinery, beams and large doors, all of which add character to this truly unique apartment.

This apartment is within a building with an impressive neogothic façade, reformed by Cristian Cirici i Alomar who received the National Restoration Prize in 1980 for his work. The building also boasts magnificent vintage interior design and a lift.

At the heart of the property we find the incredible living room of generous dimensions and flooded with natural light as there is access to 2 balconies. This room stands out for its spaciousness, abundant light and perfectly conserved moldings and ceiling beams, in addition to the beautiful windows. This part of the property also offers a modern, equipped kitchen; its white and grey tones create an interesting contrast to the rest of the apartment. A practical laundry room and a gallery complete this area.

The sleeping area has 4 excellent bedrooms, 3 of which are doubles. The master bedroom has access to a balcony and an en-suite bathroom with a neat design.

The house has beautiful dark wood floors and is equipped with air conditioning to ensure comfort throughout the year. It also has an alarm system for total peace of mind.
