OVERVIEW

Elegant seafront mansion in S'Agaró with exceptional views and a private jetty.

This beautiful 7-bedroom property is set in a breathtaking position on the coast overlooking the famous bay of Sant Pol. The house was built in the 1950s and is one of the best in the upmarket neighbourhood of S'Agaró thanks to the perfect combination of privacy, panoramic sea views and very generous space inside and out.

The lawned gardens stand in manicured perfection above the rocks leading down to the beautiful crystal clear waters of the Costa Brava. Direct access to the sea and a wonderful private boathouse and jetty is provided via a private tunnel from the garden.

The garden is perfect for al fresco dining, entertaining and chilling out. It has a swimming pool, summer barbecue and bar area, as well as plenty of terraces and quiet corners for relaxing and enjoying the Mediterranean sun.

The house offers sweeping living areas and huge windows from which to enjoy those views. The impressive mirador makes the most of the outlook across the bay, but the privileged position can be enjoyed from most rooms on all three levels of the house.

The master suite on the first floor has a magnificent private terrace that provides an elevated vantage point from which to take in the sunrise or bask in the warmth of a Mediterranean afternoon.

The décor is warm and classical throughout, with ceramic stone floors, Catalan vaulted ceilings and huge open areas flooded with natural light. A stone fireplace forms a dramatic centrepiece in the main living area and a stone staircase links the floors.

There is covered parking for 4 cars.
