OVERVIEW

Medieval village house with many original features, 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms and a small outside patio.

Ancient cobbled streets lead to this typical Empordà stone property in a lively and beautiful village.

The property, has been well looked after by the current owners who have been careful to retain much of the old charm of the property.

The staircase is original and has not been modified and there are several well-preserved wooden beams throughout as well as many original features.

The property covers 237 m² over 3 floors with a small patio on the ground floor.
