In the highly exclusive Bellamar neighbourhood of Castelldefels, we find this stunning free-standing villa on a leafy green plot in a peaceful location with beautiful sea views and plenty of privacy.

The property has a mature garden with shady outdoor dining areas and an inviting swimming pool. Built in 1991 this exquisite villa is presented in excellent condition and provides ample living areas as well as 5 bedrooms and an office.

On entering you find yourself in an entrance hall with a dining room and a kitchen to your left. The house is built of modules. The module on the right includes 2 small bedrooms and a shared bathroom, as well as ample built-in wardrobes. The module to the left has the same arrangement. On the ext floor up, there is a master suite with a large bathroom with a jacuzzi and its own large balcony. The lowest floor contains a very large living area with its own kitchenette and a fireplace and can be used however the new tenant wishes. There is also a guest toilet, a laundry room, an office and a 2-car garage. From the living area on this floor one can access the garden, a lovely shady porch and the pool.
