OVERVIEW

Unique loft-style villa with excellent outdoor space and lovely views, for sale close to Cala Jondal in Ibiza.

With fantastic natural light and excellent views, this property would make an exceptional permanent residence on the island and it has also been granted a tourist licence. Its loft-style design is perfect for those seeking a unique property on the island of Ibiza.

Outside living: this is the feeling of this welcoming home. Surrounded by trees and vegetation and with two exterior walls converted into windows from the ground level up to the first floor, you can admire stunning natural views from within the property.

The main entrance leads to an open space with a cosy sofa, the perfect space to enjoy a movie or read a book. Next to this there is a rustic chimney for cool winter evenings while relaxing inside. Close by there is a dining area with a table for many guests and on the left-hand side the kitchen. The living & dining areas and kitchen all have access to the terrace and decked pool as well as the beautiful garden with fruit trees and plants.

Also on the lower level we find 2 bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, a library area and a guest bathroom. Taking the stairs that lead to the upper level we reach the peaceful mezzanine. On the right side the owner has installed an open office and on the left a library area with sofas.

The sleeping area includes the master bedroom and 2 further well-sized bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms. All the bedrooms have access to large desks and terraces to enjoy their own privacy in the morning while having a coffee or simply relaxing.
