Two bedroom apartments in the centre of Cascais

Stunning two bedroom apartments in a newly built condominium in the centre of Cascais

These two bedroom apartments offer all the comforts and technology of modern living whilst being located within walking distance of the centre of the old centre of Cascais. The apartments have a huge living/dining room and a large terrace which is perfect for al fresco dining. All have a south facing aspect, perfect for enjoying the Portuguese sunshine.

The kitchens are generously proportioned to allow for a breakfast table and have ample storage space. There is a spacious master suite with fitted wardrobes and a stylish bathroom. There is also a further double bedroom and another family bathroom. The apartments come with fully installed central heating, video entry phone and pre-installation for air conditioning. The finish throughout is of the highest quality and this is also reflected in the communal areas of the condominium.

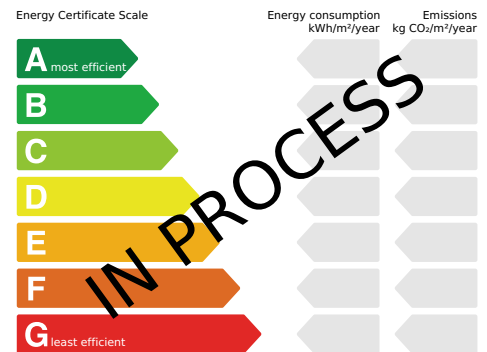

There are two lifts servicing each floor, underground parking for residents, guests parking, two swimming pools and a high specification gym. The condominium also benefits from 24/7 security. The town of Cascais has been enduringly popular with Portuguese, expatriates and holiday makers for many years. It has a traditional feel combined with international standards of cuisine, entertainment and sporting attractions.

There are five golf courses within a short distance, Cascais marina, many restaurants and superb transport links to the capital Lisbon and the nearby international airport. These apartments offer a fantastic investment opportunity.
