A wonderful three bedroom apartment, newly renovated, featuring the wonderful "Azulejos" ideally located in the central Baixa district of Lisbon

This spacious and bright fourth floor apartment has been lovingly restored to maximise the original features whilst updating and modernising the space. The apartment occupies the whole floor of the building and is divided into a number of rooms which is traditional of Lisbon properties of this period. The apartment currently features a large living room with separate dining room, spacious library or reading room, two suites, a further bedroom and a generous kitchen with plenty of storage. The apartment maintains original Azulejos throughout, stripped floor boards, traditional wooden ceilings and large windows. The balcony runs the length of the apartment and the River Tejo can be seen.

The Baixa area of Lisbon is the centre of the city and as such gives you easy access to all areas either by foot or the nearby public transport system. The historic Castle area is within a few minutes walk as is the popular Alfama. The upmarket shops and restaurants of Chiado are nearby and the more lively night life to be found in Bairro Alto is close at hand.
