Hotel project Estremoz, Alentejo, Portugal

A wonderful opportunity to create a charming boutique hotel in the Alentejo town of Estremoz

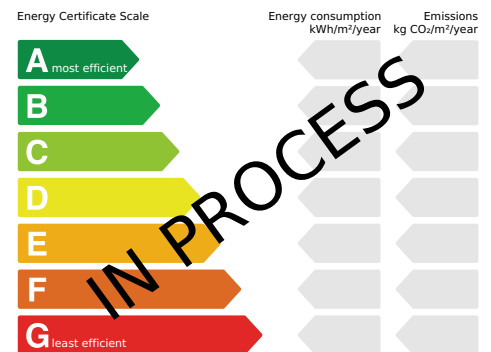

A wonderful opportunity to create a charming boutique hotel in the Alentejo town of Estremoz

This property is in need of complete renovation and offers a fantastic project for someone who is looking to create a small hotel or guesthouse in the increasingly popular Alentejo region of Portugal. The building is structurally sound and is built over four floors. The ground floor is divided into two commercial units with direct access onto the street while the remaining three floors are currently divided into a number of apartments. The project for a hotel/guesthouse is at very early stages but it has been indicated by the council that they will support the project as they look to increase tourism in the town. The property is located in the centre only a short walk from the castle and overlooking the square of the courthouse.

Estremoz itself is a beautiful hill top castle town and is a lively place with many good shops and restaurants. The town is a popular stop off for those travelling between Lisbon and Madrid being located off the main connecting motorway and it also has many visitors who come to sample the fantastic wine of the region. It is also a fashionable weekend destination for workers from the capital who are looking to escape for a few days.
