OVERVIEW

Elegant family villa with a rooftop terrace and lovely views, for sale in La Alzambra, Nueva Andalucia.

This 5-bedroom, 5-bathroom villa provides over 420m² of generous living area and more than 220m² of outdoor terraces including an exclusive rooftop solarium with panoramic sea views.

The villa has recently been completely transformed using top quality materials and furnishings by acclaimed interior designer Andrea Böch. The remodelling included the master bedroom and extension, state-of-the-art kitchen, independent basement apartment and wet kitchen/laundry room.

Set over four floors the basement is split into two sections. The front houses the garage, laundry room and storage area whilst at the rear the space has been creatively designed to include an independent luxury apartment with direct access to the garden and pool.

Access to the villa is from the ground floor entrance that leads to a double height reception. From here you access the kitchen, dining room, guest bathroom and living room areas opening onto the tropical gardens that include a heated swimming pool and a shaded pergola zone.

On the first floor there are four double bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms. Stairs lead up to the rooftop solarium including jacuzzi, a covered seating area, sun loungers and of course great views.
