OVERVIEW

Stunning 7-bedroom villa designed by Torres & Llamazares offering 1,000 m² of living space with ultra high quality materials, open plan spaces, full home automation and fantastic landscaped gardens with pool, in an exclusive area of Valdemarin, Madrid.

With a stunning and innovative design by Joaquín Torres and Rafael Llamazares, extensive use of ultra high quality materials and amazing living spaces, this dramatic property is a breathtaking example of modern architecture in one of Madrid's most exclusive neighbourhoods.

Set in wonderful landscaped gardens with terraces, porches and a lovely pool, this futuristic villa also embraces the latest technology, from home automation and centralised Bang & Olufsen audio to a lift and integrated vacuum system.

Living spaces are large and open, showcasing the villa's concrete structure and incredible architectural lines. There are 3 levels, with the double-height entrance hall welcoming you into the ground floor and opening into a truly spectacular open living space with three areas flowing into each other.

The towering living room and dining room overlook the gardens through vast glass walls. These lead out onto a selection of porches and terraces that are perfect for al fresco entertaining. These two spaces are separated from the more intimate TV room by a showpiece gas fireplace that is 6m high on the living room side.

The designer kitchen has high-end appliances and a large informal breakfast area, along with a pantry and laundry room. This floor also has a large bedroom suite with seating area as well as a recording studio that would also make a superb study, games room or home cinema.

Upstairs the oversized master suite is breathtaking, more than 100m² and with huge glass walls bringing the outside in and a large seating area with TV. The bathroom has an impressive Jacuzzi and shower, while 2 walk-in closets with mirror doors provide spectacular storage and doors open onto a lovely terrace.

A showpiece glass walkway floats above the living room and leads to 3 more generous bedroom suites. The rooms make the most of glass and high ceilings to provide a fascinating blend of space and comfort and bask in natural light.
