OVERVIEW

Newly refurbished villa on large plot with pool and mountain views, located in the hills a short drive away from Sitges

We enter this property through the garden gates leading to the vast pool area with a pergola to create shade in the summer months. Steps from the pool area lead up to a large terrace with lovely mountain views and the front door of this recently refurbished villa.

We enter the house directly into the living/dining room with windows overlooking the terrace and pool area. The smart modern kitchen is to the left, fully equipped with Smeg and Bosch appliances. To the right of the living room are two double bedrooms with a shared bathroom. To the left is another bedroom currently being used as a study,

The stairs lead us up to the first floor where we find the spacious master suite with private ensuite bathroom and a small private terrace with mountain views.

This lovely recently refurbished villa would make an ideal family home or a second home with the advantage of having a tourist licence, making it an interesting investment.
