OVERVIEW

Very bright apartment on a high floor with wonderful views of the Turia river gardens. Garage parking space included.

This apartment is on the top floor of an emblematic modern building with a concierge service and security. It is located in the exclusive neighbourhood of Pla del Real, very close to the Turia river gardens and the city centre. Being located on a high floor and having a large number of windows on the façade, it has clear garden views and is bright and welcoming.

The apartment measures 146 m² and has been fully renovated with a very practical layout. A small entrance hall leads to, on the left, the spacious living room with large windows and bay windows from which you can enjoy panoramic views of the city and the wonderful Turia River gardens. The large, sunny kitchen is decorated in white and presented fully equipped, with enough space for a table and chairs. There is a comfortable gallery where the washing machine is located.

The sleeping area consists of three bedrooms: the large master bedroom with windows overlooking the street, a large dressing room and a fully renovated bathroom with a shower; another double bedroom with a large wardrobe, and a single bedroom also with wardrobes. A full bathroom with a shower services the rest of the property.

The apartment is presented with wooden flooring, radiator heating and ducted air conditioning. All interior carpentry and cabinets are white lacquered wood. The Climalit windows have double glazing to ensure good acoustic and thermal insulation. A parking space in the same building is included.
