Contemporary style villa for sale in the area of Finisterre, A Coruña

Fabulous villa located a very short driving distance to Cape Finisterre, beautiful virgin beaches, stunning views and an active rental business.

The property is located very close to the Cap of Finisterre in the area of A Coruña in Galicia.

This contemporary style villa was built in 2019 with good quality materials throughout, with a nice plot size and very close to beautiful stunning beaches, making it a good investment as a lifestyle or to rent out on a short-term basis. The current owners built the home to receive lots of natural light to enjoy every section of the home with views of the mountains and farmland.

The home, which has a contemporary design and eco-friendly features, benefits from a large open plan dining and living room area with the kitchen serving as the centre of the home. This area has 8-metre high ceilings which make it a genuinely remarkable space, also with access to the outdoors via large sliding doors which lead to the garden and pool area. On the same level, we also find two bedrooms with access to the outdoor terrace, a bathroom and a built-in garage for one car.

On the first floor, we find a small study and the large master ensuite with a large terrace overlooking the pool, garden and lovely views of the hillside.

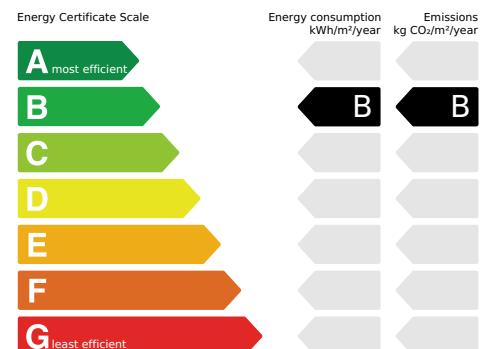

The villa is located near tourist attractions, beaches, mountains to do outdoor activities and much more. Services like restaurants and supermarkets are a short drive away.

The home is suitable for a family or an investor looking to take on this current business. Please contact Lucas Fox for more details.
