OVERVIEW

Unique 4-bedroom Mediterranean villa built to the highest standards and situated on a large south-facing plot with one of the most outstanding views of the sea, mountains and golf course.

This residence was built in 2001 with a design that was ahead of its time and, even though it needs some interior updating, it is built to the highest quality standards of La Zagaleta.

It is situated on an impressive hill, offering fantastic sea, mountain and golf views. It is surrounded by a garden and nature in a very tranquil area.

The entrance to this particular house is through a white patio with a fountain in the middle, a tranquil passage into the main entrance door.

On arrival at the door, the entrance offers two staircases leading to the left and right wings, with an opulent high ceiling, following into the open space living area with three different lounges.

The left wing is formed of a formal dining room, guest toilet, modern kitchen, laundry room, and a hall leads you into a ample bedroom with its own entrance door from the patio, a dressing room and bathroom.

The right wing offers a tv room, study and another sensational bedroom of exactly the same size as the left wing one.

The majestic staircases lead into the master bedroom, dressing room and bathroom ensuite with extraordinary views towards the sea. On this level we have another bedroom for either the young members of the family or as a perfect study with its dressing and own bathroom.

The generous garden has a good size long pool with a barbecue area pool house.

The privacy of this house, together with the ample garden and impressive views are all highlights of the property.

It is the perfect opportunity to acquire a property which is competitively priced when considering the extensive mature garden and the privileged location.
