OVERVIEW

New build house with 3 bedrooms with a 51 m² terrace for sale in Polop.

Lucas Fox presents this elegant design property in a quiet environment surrounded by pine trees and guarded by the Monte de Ponoig.

The villa is distributed on one floor for more comfort, with direct entrance to the day area with the living-dining room and the kitchen, with direct views of the sea. The villa has three bedrooms and two bathrooms and parking.

The property offers cozy interiors framed by large windows that allow abundant natural light to enter the rooms throughout the day. In addition, the option of a private pool and solarium is offered. The property was designed to be enjoyed throughout the year.

This wonderful development is made up of a series of independent houses with a clean and modern design and is closed and protected with surveillance cameras. It offers the perfect combination of safety, comfort and nature. Among its amenities, a social centre for community use, a large swimming pool, a children's play area, a gym, space for electric bicycles with a charging system, photovoltaic energy and much more stand out.

It is ideal both for passionate investors in homes with character, and for those seeking to connect with nature. It is also a suitable property for families with children as a permanent residence or holiday home.

The development has several villas for sale of different styles and prices, so we will be happy to offer you more information. For more information, please contact altea@lucasfox.es directly. and/or through the telephone number +34 965 208 331.
