€2,190,000 House / Villa - For sale

Exclusive contemporary Mediterranean villa in a privileged enclave

Elegant contemporary residence with Mediterranean design, spacious interiors, multiple terraces, and unique sea and mountain views.

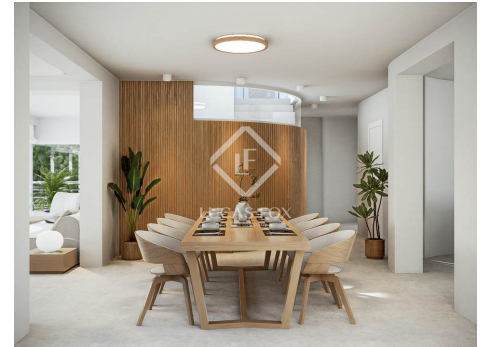

This spectacular contemporary Mediterranean design property stands out for its modern lines, impeccable white facade, and large windows that fill every room with natural light. Surrounded by a peaceful and private setting, it enjoys a privileged location at the foot of the Sierra Bernia mountains, where views of the sea, the sun, and the mountains combine.

The house is spread over several levels, all seamlessly connected. The main floor houses the heart of the home: a spacious and bright living-dining room that opens onto terraces and balconies, next to a modern, fully equipped kitchen. On this same level is the main bedroom, which features an en suite bathroom and dressing room, as well as a practical laundry room room.

The ground floor offers a large private garage with capacity for several vehicles, as well as two very bright bedrooms and two complete bathrooms designed with modern and functional finishes. From here, there is direct access to the exterior area, a true paradise for enjoying the Mediterranean climate thanks to its private pool, a barbecue area ideal for outdoor gatherings, and a separate bathroom serving this part of the property.

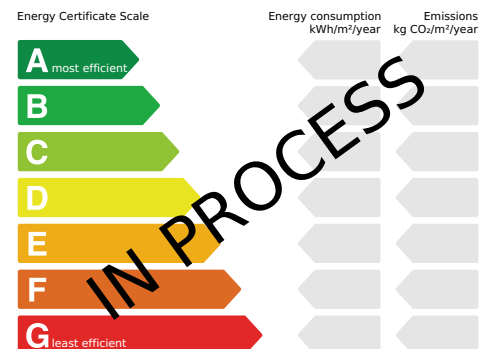

On the rooftop, a stunning solarium with panoramic views creates the perfect setting for relaxing or sharing unforgettable evenings. This level also includes a guest bedroom with a private bathroom, offering complete independence and comfort.

The property, with its elegant architecture, multiple terraces and balconies, and exterior staircases connecting each level, combines spaciousness, comfort, and sophistication in a unique natural setting. A perfect residence for living and fully enjoying the Mediterranean lifestyle.
