OVERVIEW

Modern apartments for sale as part of a new development in Tetuán, an up-and-coming neighbourhood conveniently close to the financial and business district.

Located in Madrid's Tetuán neighbourhood, this new development represents a fantastic opportunity in the centre of Madrid. Tetuán, Madrid's fastest growing neighbourhood, attracts young people and professionals; next to the city's financial and business district and close to Paseo de la Castellana, it is perfectly located for those living and working in the Spanish capital.

The development consists of high quality, modern apartments, each with a private storage area. There are parking spaces available in the building next door. The apartments stand out for their open spaces, high ceilings and fantastic natural light thanks to large windows and terraces. Comfort and quality were the primary concerns when it came to selecting materials and finishes; the apartments are fitted with under-floor heating (hot and cold) and the kitchens are fitted with high end appliances.

A fantastic option for those seeking a brand new home in a central Madrid location.
