OVERVIEW

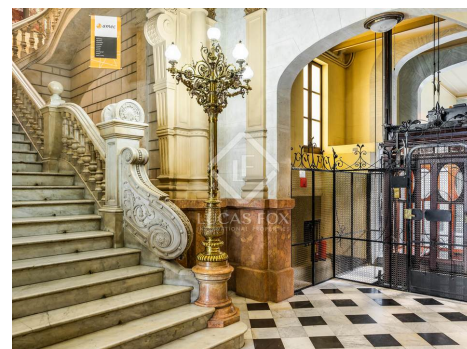

Beautiful apartment with period features and a stunning gallery for sale in a listed building in Barcelona's Golden Square.

This apartment is located in Barcelona's emblematic Casa Maria Robert, a listed building dating back to the end of the 19th century designed by the architect Salvador Viñals. We are welcomed into the building, which is in excellent condition, by a spectacular entrance with a majestic staircases and a modernist elevator. The apartment itself was renovated a few years ago and is in very good condition, with beautifully preserved original features, such as hydraulic tiled flooring, which add character to this city centre home.

The house has a functional square layout. From the entrance hall we access the kitchen and the bathroom. The square living room boasts Nolla mosaic flooring and attractive coffered ceilings; part of the history of Barcelona. The living room leads to two bedrooms, one on each side. Both bedrooms are double rooms overlooking the courtyard, one has an en-suite bathroom while the other has an adjoining dressing room. This dressing room could also be used as a bedroom.

Finally, from the living-dining room we access a beautiful gallery, characteristic of the Eixample neighbourhood, with its small terrace, which runs the width of the house. The gallery receives an abundance of natural light.
