OVERVIEW

Sunny designer duplex penthouse of 145 m² in an original stately building from 1900 on Rambla Catalunya, two large terraces of 43.90 m² and 61.50 m², 2 double bedrooms en suite plus an additional one, building with a lift.

Exceptional duplex penthouse renovated in 2018, in an excellent location in an original building from 1900. The attic floor is the result of an extension carried out in 1987. The building retains its historical decorative elements that give it great prestige. It has a lift and concierge service. This property with two exterior-facing facades, one overlooking the block patio and the other overlooking the street, has large windows to the quiet terrace of 43.90 sqm, ideal for the chill out area next to the day area.

We enter the hall with a very functional built-in wardrobe, where the curved wooden wall that flows into the comfortable living room with natural oak parquet flooring stands out, and large windows to the terrace provide plenty of light.

The open-concept all-white kitchen is tucked into the corner next to the terrace facade. The kitchen is fully equipped with all brand new built-in and panelled Siemens appliances, the extractor hood is by Bosch and the fridge by Balay. The 43.90 sqm terrace with ivory sandstone flooring that gives it great warmth, is perfect for a chill out area and an outdoor table to eat. From the terrace there is access to a storage room with the installations necessary for the washing area and the boiler.

The night area on this floor is accessed from the hall. Behind the curved wooden wall, we find a complete bathroom with a shower and a window to the interior patio whose access door is concealed and integrated into the wooden wall. This bathroom also serves as a guest toilet. Opposite is a spacious single bedroom with built-in wardrobes. An en-suite bedroom with built-in wardrobe and an area for an armchair or desk where the open concept of the unique Italian alpine green marble bathroom stands out, which is accessed via three steps, next to the interior garden of beautiful plants that transmit great harmony and light thanks to the skylight that illuminates the entire space. The bathroom has a double sink, bathtub, bidet and shower.

A staircase lined with onyx marble rises like a sculpture next to the kitchen to an en-suite double bedroom with a walk-in closet behind the bedhead, a white marble exterior bathroom with shower completes the suite. The suite has a balcony over the living room terrace and a spectacular 61.50 sqm ivory sandstone terrace with landscaped sides with climbing plants and a red pergola that gives it a pleasant touch of colour. The terrace has automatic irrigation and lighting.

The floors are made of oak parquet except in the staircase, the bathrooms and the kitchen which are made of marble. In addition, the house has hot and cold air conditioning units in the living room and in bedrooms where the unit looks like a painting and is perfectly concealed. Heating by radiators with gas boiler in the storage room and motorized blinds.
