OVERVIEW

Modern triplex apartment with terrace and outdoor jacuzzi renovated by a prestigious interior design studio with impressive results for sale in Sant Antoni, Barcelona.

Triplex on the pedestrian Passeig Pere Calders in a modern building with a brick façade, very close to the popular Carrer Parlament.

This modern 2-bedroom home is spread over 3 levels. The entrance level accommodates the living room and dining room and the fitted kitchen, all in a free-flowing split-level area. Also, on this floor are the pantry, utility area and guest toilet.

A unique suspended staircase takes us up to the studio area, for use as the new owner wishes. Here there is space for a TV room and study for example. Above this is the sleeping area, which consists of 2 double bedrooms and a bathroom. At the top of the triplex we find a fantastic decked terrace with a chill out area, shower and outdoor jacuzzi.

The property was fully renovated between 2015 and 2016 at the hands of a prestigious interior design studio that carried out the transformation using high-end materials and finishes. The quality of the finishes and incredible attention to detail throughout is what really stands out about this property, which is now presented in immaculate condition and ready to move into. It enjoys a wonderful airy contemporary atmosphere due to its double height ceiling in the living room – dining room and the skylights in the stairwell that provide extra natural light.

The remodeling of the Sant Antoni Market, the largest in the city of Barcelona, has revived one of the most traditional neighbourhoods of the city

Modern designer property, ideal for a young couple or anyone that appreciates contemporary interiors and a great location in one of the most up-and-coming areas of Barcelona.
