OVERVIEW

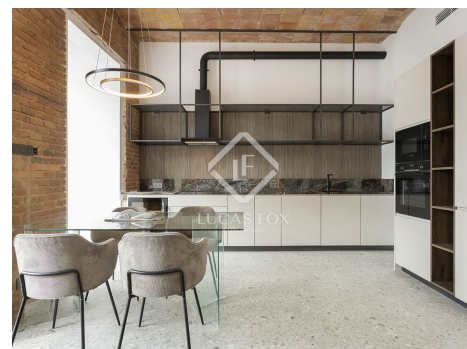

Spacious 140 m² renovated apartment with two double bedrooms and two bathrooms, crowned by a cozy living room illuminated by a beautiful, sunny gallery

On the second floor of a classic building in Barcelona's Eixample, with a lift, located on Gran Vía and very close to Plaça Universitat, we find this property, completely renovated, with original features and a lot of character.

The layout of the property is based on a day area consisting of the living room with an open kitchen and access to a beautiful gallery facing the quiet block patio. This gallery is glazed from floor to ceiling and can be opened completely for more open space as a terrace.

On the other hand, we have the master suite room with a small balcony, another interior-double room serviced by a complete bathroom and a multifunctional area that could serve as a work, relax or play area.

The detailed renovation being carried out in combines traditional and architectural elements such as exposed beams, ceilings with mouldings and exposed brick walls, with much more modern aesthetics, such as marble floors in some of the rooms, wooden floors, air conditioning and heating ducts, a Porcelanosa brand kitchen with Bosch appliances, etc.
