OVERVIEW

Brand-new apartment for sale in one of the best areas of Barcelona.

This 120 m² property is found in a traditional building in the popular Sant Antoni area of Barcelona, one of the most sought-after areas of Catalan capital, near the Sant Antoni market and the Parlament area, where we find a wide range of leisure and dining options. In addition, public transport stops are found within a five-minute radius of the apartment with services to the rest of the city and beyond.

This apartment has been designed to offer a good layout with an open-plan kitchen, living and dining room, two bathrooms, a private terrace of approximately 20 m² facing a courtyard and three bedrooms: two doubles (one en-suite) and one single. The part of the living room facing a semi-pedestrian street includes a small balcony.

The property is renovated, but original elements such as the high ceilings, that are typical of Barcelona architecture, are maintained. The renovation has been carried out by a well-known developer with the following finishes: original recovered and treated mosaic floor tiles, natural wood oak parquet in bedrooms, built-in wardrobes, a kitchen with a lacquered finish and natural wood, Ipe wood flooring on the terrace, wooden window frames (aluminium on the rear façade), original interior carpentry restored by hand by a cabinetmaker, micro-cement bathrooms and built-in taps.

These tasteful, high quality finishes, along with the charming private terrace, make this an enviable family home with a touch of traditional charm.
