OVERVIEW

Spectacular apartment with comprehensive renovation located in a period building from 1890 in l'Antiga Esquerra de l'Eixample.

Magnificent renovated and brand new property in a beautiful period building from 1890. The renovation has high quality materials, but preserves the essence of the time, such as the Catalan vaulting.

It is distributed in a entrance hall that divides the large dining room living room (with access to two balconies) from the two main double bedrooms (one of them with an en-suite bathroom).

Next, we have the kitchen, whose practicality and functionality is what differentiates it from a traditional one. Its modern style includes high-quality finishes adapted to the space, as well as Bosch brand appliances .

The master suite is characterized by its natural light thanks to the large windows on the balcony. Highlights include its own bathroom and the recovery of the head wall, made of original exposed work, which extends to the open dressing room.

The third room leads us to a private terrace facing the block patio, a chill out area where we can isolate ourselves from the overwhelming noise of the city.

The property has a heat/cold pump installation through ducts and exterior carpentry with thermal insulation.

A lift is currently being installed in the building.
