OVERVIEW

Exceptional rental home with incredible original architectural elements located in Barcelona's Golden Square, near Passeig de Gracia.

This masterpiece of modernism is located a few steps from Passeig de Gracia, in the centre of Barcelona's Golden Square.

The property has several elements of the original period architecture, such as the incredible crafted ceilings with a height of 4.4 metres. The Nolla mosaic floor together with the stained-glass windows adds a touch of colour and personality to the home. The house is completely renovated with luxury finishes, resulting in a perfect mix between original architecture and the contemporary world.

The flat includes a spacious living-dining room with three large balconies on the main façade of the building. From the living room, we can access the kitchen, with a very elegant decoration and fully equipped with high-end appliances. In addition, the kitchen has access to another balcony that allows a lot of natural light to enter.

The property has a total of 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. The master bedroom has a very elegant handcrafted ceiling, an exterior balcony, a distinguished private bathroom and fitted wardrobes to optimize storage space. The second bedroom is also double and has a private bathroom, with access to a pleasant interior patio. The remaining bedroom is single.

There is the possibility of converting the reading and study area into an additional bedroom with beautiful stained-glass windows. In addition to the private bathrooms, the apartment has another complete bathroom and a laundry area. The room to leave the coats completes this exceptional home.

It is a unique opportunity in the most coveted area of the city centre.
