OVERVIEW

For rent modern apartment located in a unique 19th century building in the old town of Barcelona. The property is completely renovated, with very elegant furniture.

The property is located in one of the oldest and most emblematic buildings in the Gothic Neighbourhood, in the centre of Barcelona.

This attractive 70 m² apartment occupies the first of the three floors of the building without a lift, as it only has one property per floor. In the left wing, we find a double bedroom with a large wardrobe and access to an courtyard with a large utility area, washing machine and space to hang clothes. Next to it, we have a fully equipped kitchen with state-of-the-art appliances and a comfortable round folding table, very practical to take advantage of all the space in the room. At the end of the kitchen we find the bathroom with shower. In the right wing, there is a large living room with a lounge space equipped with a comfortable sofa, armchairs and television. Next, we have the second double bedroom with a large wardrobe and window to the outside.

Thanks to the renovation, cozy spaces with plenty of natural light and a modern design have been achieved that are complemented by the restored and preserved original features, such as the beams and mosaic floor tiles.

The apartment includes excellent quality finishes and materials, such as Porcelanosa floors with underfloor heating, air conditioning, thermo-acoustic insulation and LED lighting.

Each property has access to a communal terrace with a rooftop solarium, ideal for enjoying the excellent weather and relaxing at the end of the day.

In short, this apartment is perfect for those looking for a unique and very special house in one of the most interesting and historic neighborhoods of the city.
