Benahavis Sky Villas Apartments, Benahavís, Costa del Sol

A new development of Apartments for sale in Benahavís, Costa del Sol with a starting price of €2,400,000

In a privileged natural setting, very close to Marbella, this exclusive residential development is presented, an innovative concept that combines the spaciousness and privacy of a villa with the comfort, security, and amenities of a high-end residence. A project conceived for those seeking a sophisticated lifestyle in complete harmony with the landscape.

The development comprises six boutique buildings, carefully oriented to maximize light, privacy and views, while maintaining a quiet and exclusive atmosphere.

The residences are designed to occupy one or two entire floors, offering a sense of space and privacy rarely found in conventional residential developments. The contemporary architecture features large, floor-to-ceiling windows that seamlessly connect the interiors with expansive terraces designed to enjoy the Mediterranean climate year-round.

Construction quality is one of the project's cornerstones: high-end materials, carefully selected finishes, fully equipped kitchens, and efficient climate control systems. Certain unit types offer the option of adding a private rooftop pool, as well as wellness areas, a gym, or multifunctional spaces, depending on the chosen design.

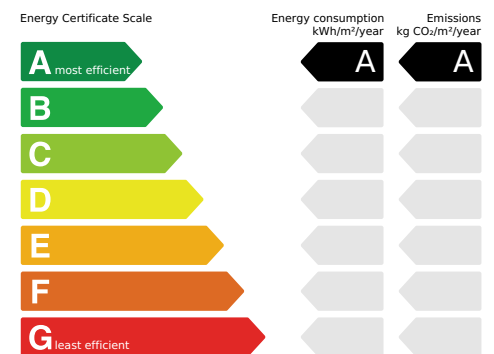

Each property features a private underground garage and direct access via a private elevator, ensuring comfort, privacy, and security. Residents also enjoy communal areas designed for leisure and socializing, such as the communal swimming pool with a sun terrace, fostering a relaxed and exclusive lifestyle.
