OVERVIEW

Fantastic townhouse in the centre of Begur, fully renovated in 2005 and with a swimming pool and terrace. An ideal primary or secondary residence.

This beautiful 3-bedroom townhouse in the centre of Begur features a swimming pool and was fully renovated in 2005. This property would make an ideal primary or secondary residence thanks to its excellent condition and location in the very centre of the town, with all services within easy walking distance. In addition, traditional features such as exposed stone walls and Catalan vaults have been preserved.

The house is distributed as follows:

Access to the property is at street level where there is a beautiful living room and a large space that could be used as a garage or storage area.

On the main floor we find the fully equipped, open kitchen and the living-dining area which opens onto a pleasant wooden terrace with stairs leading to the pool. A lounge and a toilet complete this level.

On the first floor there is a double bedroom overlooking the pool, another double bedroom and a bathroom with a shower.

The remaining double bedroom, also overlooking the pool, is on the top floor and there is an attic for storage.
