OVERVIEW

A well presented, modern and high quality villa for sale in a great location walking distance to the beach in Portichol, Jávea.

This very well presented lock-and-leave property was built in 2020 to high standards, with quality materials and with attention to detail. The modern villa has clean lines and with an interior design chosen from Jan des Bouvrie collections. Jan des Bouvrie was a Dutch architect, interior and product designer, best known for his 1969 “kubusbank sofa”.

Situated in one of the nicest locations and with incredible views. Less than 10 minutes’ walk to the beautiful cove of Portichol where you can enjoy the peace that offers the beach and the sea.

The plot is just over a 1,000 m², all walled and with a drive going up to the villa. The drive is good for 2-3 cars.

The property is distributed over two levels, with amazing views over the Mediterranean Sea and the Portichol island.

The main floor consists of: an entrance hall, a bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, a guest toilet, utility room, an open kitchen, living-dining room, and all with access to the outdoor terraces, barbecue and a cascading pool. The barbecue area has a little fridge and an ice machine.

On the upper floor are a further 3 bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms. All bedrooms have built-in and fully lined wardrobes and with wonderful views of the sea. The main bedroom is spacious and has opened sliding doors that lead out onto a balcony.

From the upstairs level, there is a door that leads to the back of the property and that goes up to a roof terrace with a bar area.
