VILLA HORIZON - Contemporary Mediterranean Villa with Panoramic Sea Views, Infinity Pool and Private Botanical Garden in Casares

A contemporary villa set within a peaceful natural enclave on the Costa del Sol. The property blends architecture, landscape and light to create open living spaces with sea views, private gardens and refined outdoor areas designed for privacy and everyday

This contemporary villa has been conceived as a private retreat where architecture, landscape and natural light interact in quiet harmony. Positioned in an elevated setting on the Costa del Sol, the home enjoys open views towards the Mediterranean and a sense of calm that defines everyday living.

The design is guided by a strong horizontal architectural language that stretches across the terrain, creating expansive terraces and outdoor living areas that frame the surrounding scenery. Interior spaces flow naturally towards the outdoors through large glazing and carefully planned orientations, allowing daylight and fresh air to shape the atmosphere of the home throughout the day.

The property offers approximately 951 m<sup>2</sup> of built space and is arranged over generous volumes designed for comfort and privacy. Living and dining areas connect seamlessly with the terraces and infinity pool, establishing a natural transition between interior spaces and the surrounding landscape.

Materials and finishes reflect a calm Mediterranean character. Warm woods, natural textures and large-format flooring combine with expansive glazing to create balanced interiors filled with light. Every detail has been considered to achieve an environment that feels refined without excess.

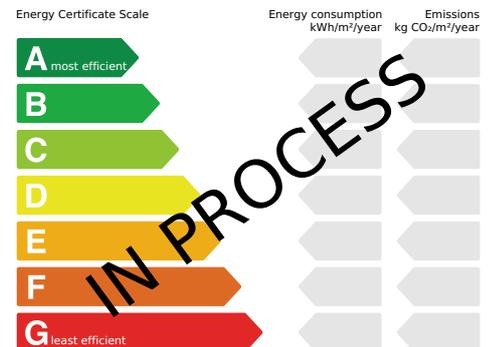

The surrounding garden forms an essential part of the residence. Landscaping incorporates a carefully selected variety of Mediterranean species together with exotic and architectural plants that give structure and identity to the outdoor spaces. The design also allows for the integration of a private orchard, offering fruit trees that bring fragrance, seasonal colour and a direct connection with nature.

The result is a residence that balances privacy, open views and contemporary design, creating a home that responds naturally to its environment and to the rhythm of life on the Mediterranean coast.
