OVERVIEW

This stunning palazzo is located in the highest reaches of the ancient walled city of Dalt Villa, offering privacy and wonderful open views from the highest point above Ibiza town and harbour.

The house previously belonged to the church and sits beside the ancient buildings of this UNESCO World Heritage Site. It sits in a uniquely peaceful and secluded location, rich with history and enjoying unbeatable views across the city and harbour.

The house has been unoccupied for some years but retains many standout features that are set to add character and charm to a renovation that perfectly blends classic architecture with modern luxury. These include floors and stairs, while much of the original carpentry is still in place.

Of course, the wonders of Ibiza are all within easy reach, but the house also has vehicle access and a garage to make getting around easy, whether picking up guests from the airport or exploring the rest of the White Isle.

This is a truly exceptional opportunity to create a magnificent, personalised private home, rental property or pied-a-terre in an exclusive position at the top of the historic city of Ibiza.
