OVERVIEW

Luxurious 5-bedroom villa on a hill with an amazing view and large swimming pool.

This recently renovated villa exudes peace, space and luxury, furnished with a lot of attention to detail and expertise.

Upon entering, the wooden kitchen diner immediately catches the eye. The timeless design with white in combination with original wooden features has been chosen for the kitchen. Next to the kitchen there is a nice bar where you can enjoy various refreshments. The built-in appliances in the kitchen are only of high quality, for example the stove is from the brand SMEG.

The living and dining area are located adjacent to this area. You can take a seat at the oval table to eat indoors. The corner sofa serves as an ideal place to relax while enjoying the fireplace.

In total, this house has 5 bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms and walk-in showers. Optionally, two bedrooms could be used as guest accommodation. The main bedroom has a separate and spacious balcony, including a beautiful outdoor shower.

Light, white colours have been used throughout the villa, combined with industrial accents, which ensures a modern and friendly atmosphere in the whole house. Finally, the house is equipped with an Osmosis system, which means that there is less limescale in the water.

The literal and figurative centrepiece of the outdoor spaces is clearly the regal swimming pool. The large, turquoise natural tiles in the basin immediately invite you to take a refreshing dip. Afterwards, you can relax on one of the many sunbeds around.

Various lounge areas have been created on both sides next to the main entrance of the house. Here you can fully enjoy the shade with a magnificent view over the mountains. At the very back, a sheltered relaxation area has been created. Two large seats under a thatched parasol can serve as an ideal chill out place with some extra privacy.

To complete the outdoor space, there is also a spacious outdoor kitchen with a large dining table. This is beautifully covered with wooden, narrow beams so that you can enjoy meals in the shade, but still fully experience the outdoor feeling. There is a professional barbecue as well as a substantial outdoor bar.
