OVERVIEW

3-bedroom house near Ibiza town, Salinas Beach, and airport. Single-floor layout, views, parking for 2-3 cars. Guest studio, terraces, equipped with cistern, septic tank, and amenities. Ideal for a comfortable Ibicencan lifestyle

Nestled near Ibiza town and the airport, this delightful three-bedroom residence in a serene locale close to Salinas Beach offers a tranquil escape and a great Sea view from one of its terraces.

Situated on a plot of over 750m², the 123m² home is surrounded by lush green pine trees, ensuring absolute tranquility. In a highly sought-after neighborhood by the island's residents, this property offers a peaceful retreat.

A fully fenced plot features dual entrances—one for the main residence and another for the guest apartment—with parking space for 2-3 cars.

The single-story house is perfect for families seeking to enjoy the authentic Ibiza lifestyle. Upon entering from the west-facing front terrace, you step into a cozy living room seamlessly connected to the dining area and kitchen—all within a warm and inviting space adorned with a pellet stove, sabina wood beams, and ample natural light.

From the kitchen, you can access the expansive rear terrace featuring a large wooden table and a covered area, making it ideal for summer meals. The sleeping area is reached through a hallway where you'll find a guest toilet. Two bedrooms are situated here, with one providing access to the terrace, and a generously sized common bathroom.

The guest area consists of a spacious room that encompasses the living area, kitchen, and dining space, along with a bathroom. The double bedroom is separated. It's worth noting that these spaces can be combined if the desire is to have everything within a single unified house.

The property boasts sunlit and shaded terraces, an elevated back terrace with nice sea and green views

Equipped with a water cistern, septic tank, and mains electricity, the property includes a pellet fireplace and air conditioning in several rooms.
