OVERVIEW

Charming Building with Tourist License in Formentera, Balearic Islands

We present a truly unique property in Formentera: a charming building that functions as a small private village, comprised of four independent homes. This layout offers an ideal combination of privacy, comfort, and versatility, perfect for both personal use and a profitable holiday rental investment.

With 7,000 m² of land, the property offers Mediterranean gardens, spacious outdoor spaces, and multiple chill-out areas. One of its greatest attractions is its tourist license, a valuable advantage for those looking to generate income through vacation rentals on an island with high tourist demand year-round.

La Finca is surrounded by carefully maintained gardens, lawns, native plants, and multiple outdoor spaces for relaxation. It offers a small private pool, outdoor dining room areas, barbecue areas, and chill-out corners, all designed to fully enjoy the Mediterranean lifestyle.

This property not only represents an exceptional lifestyle in one of the most desirable corners of the world, but also a solid investment opportunity, thanks to its versatile layout and coveted tourist license.
