OVERVIEW

Ideal second home in a family-friendly residential area with 2 pools and gardens.

Built in 1980, the apartment has been completely renovated and underfloor heating added. It is located on a family-friendly urbanization with 2 huge swimming pools and a lot of space for children to play. The whole communal area is planted with grass, Mediterranean plants and palm trees. There is a supermarket in the urbanization and good restaurants within walking distance.

The property is entered through an entrance area, then to the right is the kitchen which opens onto the living and dining area. To the left we find 2 bedrooms, one of which has an en suite bathroom) and an extra bathroom. The attractive terrace in front of the living area affords open views over the forest to the town. These views are particularly appealing in the night-time with the lights from the town of Santa Eulalia and the church of Puig d'en Missa.

There is the possibility of acquiring a 25m² storage room. The apartment is ideal as a second home or for small families.
