OVERVIEW

A well built family home, presented in a superb condition with many installations and extras. Close to amenities and enjoying a sunny aspect and some of the most spectacular views in Javea.

Built in 2012, this fabulous villa has been a happy home and can accommodate a multi-generational family. Distributed over 3 floors, the main living area is on the ground floor, with the master bedroom and guest bedroom. The apartment occupies the upper floor and can be integral into the property, however it also has its own entrance.

Gates lead into the spacious driveway with carport and to the main entrance of the property. The villa benefits from large room proportions and the reception rooms are of an open plan design, as is the kitchen.

The living room leads out onto the beautiful, south facing naya terrace with some of the most spectacular views in Javea, with the backdrop of the Montgo mountain, over the countryside, hills and valleys and towards towns of Gata, Javea, Benitachell and Jesus Pobre .

The villa is comfortable for all year round living with modern installations and a high level of finishings.

The outside area rivals the internal space with many open and covered terraces to enjoy the very pleasant microclimate of the Montgo mountain.
