Charming 3-bedroom finca for sale, walking distance to Jesús Pobre, Costa Blanca

A lovingly renovated century-old finca, with stunning gardens, breathtaking views and eco-friendly features, near to the centre of Jesús Pobre

Nestled on the edge of the charming village of Jesús Pobre, this unique finca blends centuries of history with modern comfort. Originally built over 200 years ago, the property has been lovingly restored by its current owners, preserving its character while creating a warm, inviting home with exceptional indoor–outdoor flow. Every room offers direct access to the terraces and gardens, ensuring year-round enjoyment of the Mediterranean lifestyle.

The west-facing porch, the perfect spot for evening apéritifs, sets the tone. Inside, the living room impresses with high ceilings and a pellet burner, onto the spacious open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area boasts expansive windows framing Montgó mountain, while the professionally equipped kitchen and large utility room cater to both home chefs and entertainers.

Just a few steps up, a cozy library snug with woodburner provides a quiet retreat. This level also features a double bedroom with ensuite shower, dressing room/office, and private terrace. The master suite is a true sanctuary, with a luxurious bathroom, dressing room, and garden access. Upstairs, a guest suite includes its own shower room and a spectacular roof terrace—ideal for sunset views.

Outdoors, the finca is a paradise for garden lovers. A sunken dining terrace, summer kitchen with BBQ, paellero, and pizza oven, shaded pergola with jacuzzi, and even a chicken coop complement the thriving orchard. Fruit trees abound—avocado, fig, orange, lime, grapefruit, walnut, peach, and pomegranate—alongside a flourishing vegetable patch.

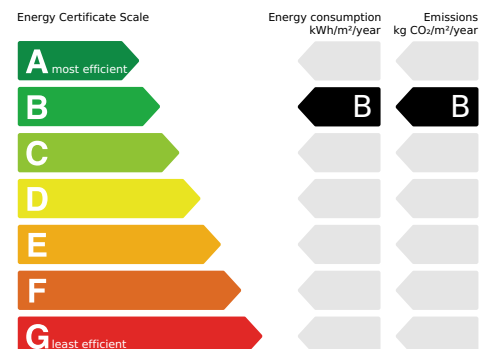

Practical extras include: solar panels for electricity, double glazing, easy road access and ample off-road parking.

All this lies just a five-minute stroll from Jesús Pobre, with its traditional bars, strong community spirit, and renowned weekly farmers' and antiques markets. This really is a haven of peace, within a vibrant Mediterranean town.
