OVERVIEW

A new development of Apartments for sale in El Raval, Barcelona with a starting price of €360,000

Lancaster-Lofts is an outstanding new build development in the historic Raval neighbourhood of Barcelona. Mano Arquitectura has been responsible for meticulously renovating this building, originally built in 1990, combining architectural heritage with modern comforts. The renovation was carried out with top quality materials and cutting-edge construction techniques, without altering the historical character of the property, but offering residents the luxuries and comforts of the 21st century.

The development offers an exclusive selection of homes between 50 m² and 110 m², including lofts, one- and two-bedroom units, as well as options with terraces and penthouses. The residences feature elegant microterrazzo floors, open kitchens, state-of-the-art appliances and access to private outdoor areas. Distinctive elements, such as traditional Barcelona beams and high ceilings, have been carefully preserved, providing authenticity to each property. In addition, residents can enjoy a large communal terrace on the roof, with green areas and various seating areas, ideal for moments of relaxation.

Lancaster-Lofts represents a unique opportunity to reside in a space that combines historical elegance with modern luxury in one of the most promising areas of Barcelona. The project has been conceived to offer its residents an unparalleled living experience. Each property reflects a commitment to excellence and style, ensuring a home that adapts to contemporary needs while retaining the charm of the past.

Do not hesitate to contact us for more information about this exclusive development or to schedule a personalized visit.
